

NATIONAL TASK FORCE ON ELECTION CRISES

National Task Force on Election Crises Condemns Attack At Former President Trump's Rally

"The National Task Force on Election Crises unequivocally condemns the attack that injured former President Trump, which took place as a crowd of his supporters were exercising their freedom of peaceful political assembly. Our thoughts are with the former President, as well as with the other innocent victims of this horrific act of violence. There is no place for violence in American politics."