

National Task Force on Election Crises Statement on Shooting of Charlie Kirk

“The National Task Force on Election Crises unequivocally condemns the attack that killed political activist Charlie Kirk. There is no place for violence in American politics, and we must unite around everyone’s right to participate in public discourse and our democracy without fear. Our thoughts and condolences are with Mr. Kirk’s family and all the students and witnesses to this brutal tragedy.”

---